

Twitter:
@NetFreedom2012

Dublin Conference on Internet Freedom

Dublin Castle, 18-19 June 2012

Outline Agenda

Monday, June 18, 2012

09:00 - 09:45	Arrival at St. Patrick's Hall Accreditation of Participants Tea / Coffee
10:00 - 10:15	Opening address by Mr. Eamon Gilmore T.D, Chairperson-in-Office of the OSCE, Tánaiste and Minister for Foreign Affairs and Trade
10:15 - 12:30	High-Level Panel Discussion: How to ensure that the internet remains an open, global and public forum for exercising freedom of opinion and expression and for facilitating other human rights and fundamental freedoms
12:30 - 14:00	Lunch Break
14:00 - 17:00	Working Session One: Towards a Shared Understanding on Internet Freedom (1): Online Content
17:30 - 20:00	Google Big Tent, Round Room at the Mansion House, Dawson Street (Coaches leave from the Upper Courtyard in Dublin Castle immediately after Working Session One)

Tuesday, June 19, 2012

09:30 - 12:30	Working Session Two: Towards a Shared Understanding on Internet Freedom (2): Internet Governance, Access and Human Rights
12:30 - 14:00	Lunch Break
14:00 - 17:00	Working Session Three: Towards a Shared Understanding on Internet Freedom (3): New Media, Social Media and Social Networks
17:00 - 17:15	Short Break
17:15 - 17:45	Closing Remarks and Key Recommendations from the Working Sessions