

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

You are a human rights educator aspiring to new knowledge and its practical application?
This occasion is definitely for you!

10-12 August 2021 – training for trainers on human rights education. Location – Odesa.

We offer:

- intensive three-day course on teaching and promoting human rights;
- highly-qualified trainers;
- interactive and adult education training methods;
- new knowledge and methodological skills through practical individual and team work;
- further mentoring to help you promote human rights education after the training;
- access to information resources that will help you advance professionally in the sphere of human rights;
- thrill of the opportunity to absorb new influences, meet like-minded people;
- certificate of training completion recognized as part of the professional retraining.

Eligibility criteria:

- be a secondary school teacher, methodologist or teacher of post-graduate pedagogical retraining institutes;
- successfully complete free online course "Human Rights in Education Environment" at: ed-era.com/hre and receive a certificate of completion.

To apply, please fill in the application form here: <https://forms.gle/1jQsEfCYoQp6jZar6> before 23:59
15 July 2021

The training is for Ukrainian nationals only. We particularly encourage qualified men to apply.

We will inform successful candidates on their selection by 25 July 2021.

For additional information please contact Nina Reshetar, Project Assistant, Rule of Law and Human Rights Programme of the OSCE Project Co-ordinator in Ukraine at: Nina.Reshetar@osce.org

The training is fully covered by the OSCE Project Co-ordinator in Ukraine, and is held within the project "Supporting Legal Education Reform and Sustainable Human Rights Education" implemented jointly with the Ministry of Education and Science of Ukraine.